CONDITIONS OF SALE

- I. The highest bidder to be the buyer. If any dispute arise the Auctioneer shall have absolute discretion to settle it; and to put any disputed lot up again.
- II. No person to advance less than 1s.; above five pounds 5s., and so on in proportion.
- III. All lots are put up for sale subject (a) to any reserve price imposed by the seller and (b) to the right of the seller to bid either personally or else by any one person who may be the Auctioneer.
- IV. The purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and if required to pay down 10s. in the pound or more, in part payment of the purchase money; in default of which the lot or lots purchased may be immediately put up again and re-sold.
- V. All lots are sold as shown with all faults, imperfections, and errors of description. Messrs. Sotheby & Co. act as agents; they have full discretion to refuse any bidding or to withdraw any lot or lots from the sale without in either case giving any reason; they are not responsible for errors of description or for genuineness or authenticity of any lot or for any fault or defect in it. Messrs. Sotheby make no warranty whatever.
- VI. The lots to be taken away at the buyer's risk and expense, immediately after the conclusion of the sale; in default of which Messrs. Sotheby & Co. will not hold themselves responsible if the same are lost, stolen, damaged or otherwise destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser and subject to a charge for warehousing. If, at the expiration of Two Days after the conclusion of the sale, unless otherwise agreed, the lots are not cleared or paid for, they may then be sold immediately, either publicly or by private treaty, without any notice being given to the defaulter.
- VII. Upon failure of the buyer to comply with any of the above conditions, the money deposited in part-payment shall be forfeited; and the defaulter at this sale shall make good any loss arising from the re-sale, together with the charges and expenses in respect of both sales.

To prevent confusion no purchases can be claimed or removed during the sale.

Messrs. SOTHEBY & Co.

are prepared to execute bids, and in addition to advise intending purchasers as far as possible, if requested by them to do so, without making any charge for either service. Lots will be procured as cheaply as is permitted by other bids or reserves, if any.

The Property of a Gentleman

- 1 An attractive blue and white Delft Bowl with perforated sides, painted in the centre with a sportsman and a gun, in a rural landscape, $6\frac{3}{4}$ in.; two small blue and white Figures of Hounds, $4\frac{1}{2}$ in.; a Liverpool transfer-printed Delft Tile with chinoiserie; and another with youthful lovers, signed "J. Sadler, Liverpl.", 5in. 5

 Last illustrated in "Apelle", September, 1940, p. 55, fig. IV.

- 2 A BLEEDING BOWL with perforated handle and thumb decoration, painted in the centre with a three-quarter length portrait of Charles II in armour, holding a sword in right hand, flanked by the initials C R 2D, $6\frac{1}{2}$ in.

- 3 A Liverpool porcelain small Teapot, painted with Chinese flowers and garden scenes in "famille-rose" enamels, $3\frac{1}{2}$ in.; a Lowdin's Bristol octagonal Tea-cup and Saucer, painted with flowers and the Hundred Antiques in "famille-verte" enamels; and another Teapot and Cover, painted in Worcester style with stag-hunting scenes and landscapes by a well-known hand, 5in. 5
- 4 A Worcester cylindrical Tankard, painted with a rustic landscape with windmill in an oval medallion, flanked by bunches of fruit, butterflies and insects within rich blue and gold borders, 5in., crescent mark; Wall period
- 5 A Chelsea Basket, painted with cherries in the centre, the perforated sides with six upright leaves in green and puce, 6in., red anchor mark; a Chelsea fluted Teapot with panels of quay scenes and flowers and stems in coloured relief, $4\frac{3}{4}$ in., faulty; a pair of fluted Cups, also with quay scenes; a Cream Jug with the fable of the Cock and the Fox; and a Saucer painted with flowers, red anchor mark 6
- 6 An interesting Chelsea Plate, probably painted by O'Neale, in green with a view of Dartrey House (later Cremorne Gardens), Chelsea, $8\frac{1}{4}$ in., gold anchor mark; and a Teapot with landscapes and river scenes, $4\frac{1}{4}$ in. 2
-  Illustrated by Dr. Bellamy Gardner in the "Antique Collector", January, 1938, pl. 1, a contemporary engraving of the same house from a different angle is figured on pl. 2. The teapot from the Arthur Hurst Collection.
- 7 A Chinese porcelain Teapot and Cover painted by O'Neale in green with a typical obelisk and classic ruins with figures on one side and a lady and gallant with a dog on a river bank, boat and pavilion on the other side, within gilt borders, $5\frac{1}{4}$ in. 2
-  For type of obelisk see the signed example illustrated by Tapp in "Jefferyes Hamett O'Neale", pl. 13, and also pl. 17, fig. 39, for another teapot painted by the same artist.
- 8 A pair of Chelsea octagonal Cups and Saucers, attractively painted with classic ruins and flowers in puce camaieu, one with typical spiky trees, red anchor marks; and a Tournai Saucer, decorated with a landscape and figures in a similar palette, $6\frac{3}{8}$ in., mark in gold 5

 Regarding the style of decoration, see "Apollo", January, 1940, "Joseph Duvivier" by W. H. Tapp, fig. 4, p. 13.

- 9 A Derby Butter Dish and Cover with fruit knop and rococo moulded panels painted with lovers, carousing figures and vases in brown relief, $5\frac{1}{4}$ in. ; early period ; and a barrel-shaped Mug with a figure of a Drummer, perhaps intended for Colonel Tarleton, on one side and military trophies on the other, $4\frac{1}{2}$ in. 3

 The first illustrated in Trans. E.C.C., vol. 2, no. 6, 1939, p. 53, pl. 16 ;
  "Antique Collector", December, 1931, p. 875, and "Apollo", August, 1933, p. 101, fig. 7.

The second illustrated in "Apollo", January, 1943, fig. 9, p. 13.

- 10 A Chelsea Butter Dish, Cover and Stand of circular shape, with strawberry knop, painted on the lid with fox and bees, on the side with flowers, leopard and lion and on the stand with two dogs, small cottage within stockade and spiky tree, 5 in. and $6\frac{3}{4}$ in., gold anchor mark 3
